MISSION STATEMENT:

Orange County SCAC Senior Citizen Engagement Committee (“the Committee”) shall prioritize and suggest policies and proposals to further Goal 3 of the California Master Plan for Aging (“MPA”) to provide inclusion and equity, not isolation, for our senior community.

Goal 1	Members of the Committee will be advocates on topics impacting senior citizen engagement, as identified by the Committee and addressed in the Goal 3 initiatives stated in the California Master Plan for Aging.
Objective 1	Each member shall propose a topic and speaker for at least one meeting for the year by the November Meeting.
Objective 2	Each member shall develop two-way communications with one or more senior center(s) to understand the needs of the community.
Goal 2	The Committee will make recommendations on proposed short-term and long-term priorities impacting seniors at the County and State levels to promote inclusion and equity of our senior community.
Objective 1	The Committee will suggest policies and proposals to close the digital divide in the County.
Objective 2	The Committee will suggest policies and proposals to protect our seniors from abuse, neglect and exploitation.
Objective 3	The Committee will suggest policies and proposals to engage our senior community through work or volunteering that provide lifelong satisfaction and inclusion.
Objective 4	The work of the committee will be presented to SCAC’s Executive Board.
Goal 3	Committee members will track the status of legislative items at the State level as they affect Goal 2.
Objective 1	One member shall track MPA and CSL legislation addressing Goal 2 initiatives and report to the committee on progress through the California Legislature on this legislation on a monthly basis.
Goal 4	Provide Committee reports at all SCAC meetings.
Objective 1	Reporting of all meetings will be made within 10 days of the meeting date.
