OAAC APPLICATION CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE GUIDELINES

Members of the OLDER ADULTS ADVISORY COMMISSION (OAAC) who vote, participate in Requests for Proposals, and/or evaluate programs under the Older Americans Act, Older Californians Act, and Tobacco Settlement Revenue are subject to the County of Orange Conflict of Interest and Disclosure guidelines.

Members of the OAAC shall not discuss, advocate, or vote on any matter in which they have a conflict or potential conflict of interest or an interest which reasonably might appear to be in conflict with the concept of fairness in dealing with public funds. A conflict of interest or a potential conflict occurs if a member has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in any issue or transaction under consideration. Any member who violates this provision may be subject to removal from the Council in addition to other remedies at law.

If a Commission member believes he/she has a conflict or potential conflict of interest on a particular issue, then that member should state the nature of the conflict, detailing that he/she has a separate, private, or monetary interest, either direct or indirect, in the issue, program or transaction under consideration. The member should then recuse himself/herself from considering and voting on the matter. In cases where a Commission member declares a conflict or potential conflict of interest, the member shall recuse himself/herself from all discussion and consideration until voting is completed on the matter in question.

Any Commission member having questions or needing assistance regarding the interpretation of these conflict of interest and disclosure guidelines should contact the OC Office on Aging. The OoA staff will assist the member with questions and make recommendations on whether or not the Commission member should recuse himself/herself from voting. The Commission member may request that OoA staff respond in writing.

I, _____, acknowledge the above stated conflict of interest and disclosure guidelines by signing this document and declare that I will abide with the guidelines accordingly.
